

Weekly Learning Ideas- 27/4/2020

Sensory trays are a great way to engage children into independent exploration and play. You can do cereal like porridge, Cheerios, crushed Weetabix or pasta trays which you can colour if you want to make more visually interesting. You can cook some of the pasta if you want to make the textures more different. Explore and play!

